THREE BLESSED
MASSABKI MARONITE MARTYS

The three Maronite brothers from Damascus, Francis, Raphael, and Abd-el-Mo'ty, children of Nehme Massabki, were born in the first half of the nineteenth century.

On the evening of July 9, 1860, fanatics entered the Franciscan Church, in Damascus, where the three Massabki brothers were kneeling before the altar and gave them the choice between death and the acceptance of another religion. The brothers replied: "You may destroy our lives but you cannot destroy our faith in Christ and our souls; we are Christians. In the faith of Christ we live and in the faith of Christ we shall die." They were killed before the altar. That same night, many other Franciscan priests and brothers were also killed for their faith.

On October 7, 1926, Pope Pius XI beatified the three brothers, Francis, Raphael and Abd-el-Mo'ty. We celebrate their Feast each year on July 10.

WE WELCOME

Gianna Marie Atallah, daughter of Massoud and Josette Atallah, who was Baptized and Confirmed on July 3, 2016. Congratulations!
