Congratulations to Youssef Lahoud, who was the winner of the April drawing!

(Stained Glass Window at Heart of Jesus Church, Fort Lauderdale, FL)

The Lebanese people have a special devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary, the mother of Jesus, also known as Our Lady of Lebanon, and celebrate her feast on the first Sunday of May, each year.

The Maronite Patriarch of Antioch named her the "Queen of Lebanon" in 1908 upon the completion of the Shrine of Our Lady of Lebanon, located in Harissa, a mountain village about 30 minutes north of Beirut.

SECOND COLLECTION
