THE MASSABKI MARONITE MARTYRS

On the evening of July 9, 1860, fanatics entered the Franciscan Church in Damascus where the three Massabki brothers, Francis, Abdul-Mooti, and Raphael were kneeling before the altar, and were given the choice between death or the acceptance of Islam.

The brothers replied: "You may destroy our lives but you cannot destroy our faith in Christ, we are Christians. In the faith of Christ we live and in the faith of Christ we shall die".

We remember the Blessed Massabki Brothers on Tuesday, July 10.

THE ORDER OF SAINT GREGORY THE GREAT

This is a Papal honor given by the Pope to Catholic men and women in recognition for service to the Holy See and to the Catholic Church. These awards are given upon recommendations from Bishops. Since 1944, women have been appointed as "Dames" while men are appointed as "Knights".

We are honored to have Faith Jarvis as one of the new recipients of this Order.
