While on their way from Saint Maron Monastery to Saint Simon Stylite Monastery, near Aleppo, a group of Maronite monks were ambushed, many survived and escaped, but 350 were killed.

The Maronite monks were being attacked by opponents to the Proclamation by the Council of Chalcedon that in 451 declared that Christ is both divine and human in nature, but one person.

The Superiors of the monastery of Saint Maron and other neighboring monasteries wrote to Pope Hormisdas to inform him of the events that had taken place. The Pope responded by encouraging the monks to persevere in the Catholic faith and praised the faith of the 350 martyred monks.

Let us pray today, that like the 350 Martyrs we are always obedient to the teachings of the Church.
